The Board of Education of Newport refused to re-elect Miss Margie Gilson as a teacher for next year because of her frequent visits to Scott Jackson, who is in jail sentenced to be hanged for murdering Pearl Bryan. His Ideal Wife.
I own a precious treasure,
It is my darling wife,
Though twenty years we're married,
We've lived a happy life.
I could not do without her,
Of me she says the same;
My dear wife Mary Jane,
The first time that I met her
I never shall forget.
She looked to me so beautiful—
Indeed she's that way yet.
Her eyes so bright are quite as blue,
And hair the same dark brown.
The fairest girl in town.
—E. P. Gould.

If it required an annual outlay of $100 to insure a family against any serious consequences from an attack of bowel complaint during the year there are many who would feel it their duty to pay it, they could not afford to risk their lives, and those of their family for such a sum. Any one can get this insurance for 25 cents, that being the price of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In almost every neighborhood some one has died from an attack of bowel complaint before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. One or two doses of this remedy will cure any ordinary case. It never fails. Can you afford to take the risk for so small an amount? For sale by J. J. Wood Drugist.

Ladies' Book of Beauty.
Send twelve 2-cent stamps to The Trade Company, Boston, Mass., for Marion Hadden's "Practical Talks" about food, exercise, clothing, complexion, beautifying, teeth, dressing, etc. Regular price, 75 cents.

TWO BIG FAKES.

A Couple That Should Be Kept To a Good Sized Club.

There are two fakers in town who want to "watch out" for.

The first one comes into your establishment, asks for a match to light his pipe with, picks out the most costly piece of furniture in the house, makes three or four ugly scratches on it with the match, lights his pipe and walks out.

His partner comes in a little later, greets you in a jovial manner, tells you he is selling an article that will take off scratches for a dime and then he scampers away.

Get your clubs in a handy place, and when the first one comes in swipe him, and when the second one comes in give him a job of taking the scratches off both his partner's and his own head.

In answer to a telegram Miss Alice Boyer left this morning on the early train to accept a position with the Ripley Steam Laundry.

Ell Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Cooper of the Fifth Ward, was painfully injured while playing ball by falling against a pile of rock and badly cutting his face.

At a meeting at James H. Hall's there were four generations in company. Mr. James Jacobs at the head, and the five youngest children of five families present. They all sang a hymn of old Dr. Watts', "Broad in the Road That Leads to Death," by the tune of "Old Hundred," and the old man raised the tune.

SETTLED AT LAST.

Opinion of Police Judge Sustained By Circuit Court.

A much mooted question, involving the jurisdiction of the Police Court, was effectively settled in the Circuit Court yesterday, the decision of that Court sustaining the Judge of the Police Court in his rulings upon the subject.

A party was before the Police Court upon a warrant charging the defendant with using abusive and insulting language, the ordinance of the city being the same as the statute upon the subject.

The defendant filed an affidavit praying for a change of venue to the Court of a Justice of the Peace, and Judge Wadsworth overruled the motion for the change, deciding that the Police Court had exclusive jurisdiction of all cases in which a city ordinance had been violated.

The defendant refused to make any defense, and upon the evidence of the witnesses for the city a fine of $10 was assessed.

The case was taken before Circuit Judge Harbeson upon a writ of habeas corpus, with the above result.

The Judge of the Police Court has at all times insisted that the statute relating to a change of venue was not intended to relate or apply to the Police Court where the charge was an infraction of the ordinances of the city, and has persistently and consistently ruled that way, and the decision of the Circuit Court sustaining Judge Wadsworth may be taken as an endorsement of his judgment upon the subject.

It is to be hoped that the Police Court will experience no more trouble of this nature.

BICYCLE CARNIVAL.

There'll Be Fun Alike at the Park Friday Evening.

See Davy Dee upon his air.
A "Grindstone" model rare,
His feet tread to the earth below,
His head up in the air.

And then Bob Baldwin, clothed in smiles
And other tongue-rippers,
Will make you glad you had the "cents"
To pay the entrance fee.

Ed Nesbitt with his "Betsy" old
Will do a trick quite queer—
He'll turn his hindside to the front,
His footstool to the rear.

Dave Watson now is out of "skule,"
He's learned a thing or two,
He'll show that he was once just at
The point now held by you.

There will be given, under the auspices of the Ladies' Mite Society of the Christian Church, on Friday evening June 12th, from 5 to 7 o'clock, at the Mayville Bicycle Park, a Grand Carnival and parade on wheels.

Each lady and gentleman rider in the city is requested to be present in appropriate costumes, with wheels decorated, and take part.

Invitations have been sent to riders in adjoining towns to be present and take part in the parade.

There will also be expert and trick riding by home amateur talent.

Mr. David Dye will perform some wonderful tricks on the handsome "Grindstone" model '97.

Colonel Robert L. Baldwin has promised to be present and endeavor to ride a bike. Persons needing revenue stamps are requested to supply themselves two hours before the Carnival begins.

MAYSVILLE-KNOXVILLE!

THE LEADER'S SPECIAL FROM THE BALL GAMES.

WE WON YESTERDAY.

The Maysville team won yesterday's game all right.

The score being—
Mayville 3,
Knoxville 2,
And the Umpire was Denny, too.

After waking up to the fact that they were scheduled to win the game, the boys went to work in earnest, and the following telegram will show how well they carried out their part of the program:

Special to Public Ledger.
KNOXVILLE, June 10th—6:01 p. m.
Today's game, Mayville 3, Knoxville 2.

The Maysvilles won the game on errors of the Knoxville.

Mayville—Lever and Kellner.
Hits—9.

Errors—None.
Struck out—By Lever 5.
Bases on balls—Off Lever 3.
Home run—Kellner.

Knoxville—Miller and Gibson.
Hits—5.
Struck out—By Miller 2.

Bases on balls—Off Miller 1.
Home run—Gibson.
Attendance—700.
Time of game, 1:30.

Umpire—Denny.
Another game tomorrow.
L. C. BLANKENSHIP.

That was no doubt the best game of ball that has been played in the Knoxville cigar-box in many a day.

And by examining the summary close one can readily see that Denny played the game well.

We don't believe that Sammy Lever was so wild that he "walked" three of those Indians, while Miller, on the other hand, only gave one base on balls.

The boys have decided to stay over and play another game today, as there have been three games won by each, making it a draw.

As this will be the deciding game, it will be watched with interest, and no doubt there will be a large crowd out to witness the battle.

Newton will pitch today for Mayville, while no doubt Bates will do the twirling for Knoxville.

The boys will return home tomorrow on the 1:30 "Flyer," leaving Knoxville tonight, and there will be a game at the Park tomorrow afternoon between the Maysvilles and the Alerts, a good, all-around club from Cincinnati, and as the boys have been playing an article of ball that no club in the League is putting up, there will be a large crowd go out to "root" them on to victory. The game will be called at 3:30 sharp.

BAKE-DOWN.

The Knoxville Tribune, in giving Monday's game by innuendo, gave the whole thing away, and simply shows the way the Maysville boys have had to go in order to win. In the first inning Mayville had put out four men. Here it is:

First inning—For Knoxville, Crawley flew out to left, Jobe went out from short to first, McCallough flew out from short to first, Moffett flew out to center.

A postal from Mr. Ben T. Cox explains a few things:

KNOXVILLE, June 8th, 1896.
Mr. Editor: Knoxville has resorted to every low and dirty trick known to baseball in order to beat us. The Umpire has been simply awful, and it is due to no courtesy of his that we have won two games. We have a splendid team, and the boys are improving each day. Sullivan is doing great work at second, as is Kellner behind the bat. If all goes well and we have an even break, we shall return with two more scalps.

UNITED CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

Program for the Great Reunion at Richmond June 30th.

NEW ORLEANS, June 1st, 1896.
Editor Public Ledger—Dear Sir: General J. B. Gordon, Commanding United Confederate Veterans, respectfully requests that you will aid the patriotic and benevolent objects of the United Confederate Veterans by publishing in your next issue date Reunion is to take place at Richmond, Va., on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, June 30th and July 1st and 2nd, 1896, with editorial notice of the organization, or please publish this letter. Also to urge ex-Confederate soldiers and sailors everywhere to form themselves into local associations and apply to these headquarters for papers to organize in time to participate in the great Reunion, and thus unite with their comrades in carrying out the laudable and philanthropic objects of the organization.

Business of the great importance will demand careful consideration during the Sixth Annual Reunion—such as the best methods of securing impartial history, and to enlist each state in the compilation and preservation of the history of her citizen soldiery; the benevolent monuments to other great leaders, soldiers and sailors of the South; and as there is no relief or aid for our veterans and their families, outside of ourselves and our own resources, to perfect a plan for a mutual aid and benevolent association; to make such changes in the constitution and by-laws as experience may suggest, and other matters of general interest.
